

Automatic Payroll & Budget Management for Small Business

- DHARIKA KAPIL(10453441)
- PARTH PARAB(10444835)
- NEIL GUPTE(10445674)
- ZACHARY ZWERLING(10433532)

The idea of the application is to allow small business owners easily manage payroll and inventory. The value of the application is data management. The vision is that the primary user can manage funds, payrolls and inventory of their business and also get weekly expenses reports of data analyzed by the system.

Core features:

- Login/Sign up
- Main page

The main page after login will show the list of employees with total hours worked for the week so far, their work details, tax and total payroll cash and budget available

- Budget

Allowing the employer to manage and log revenue, profits and budgets to allot for various payments and maintain a portfolio

- Calendar and Task List

Calendar view which shows date of payment of each employee with options such as – make payment now, halt payment, rearrange date of payment. A task list of additional payrolls and adding tasks to calendar

- Employer and Employee Profile

Profile of each employee with details like – Personal description, Contact, Job Description, Tax, Emergency contact. Similar profile for Employer with list of teams with different employees and budget goals and objectives

- Managing Employees

Allowing employer to add, remove or edit details of employees for job description, position, salary

- Reports

Annual reports and statistics of trends of spending and analysis of various data points like pay and budget correlation

- Talent Acquisition of comparing skills of new possible employees with the skills required for hiring new people by filling application form
- Help Desk for Customer to interact with the Developer

Extra features:

- Inventory Management
- To help small organizations keep record of the various quantities of goods in their warehouse or storage
- Stock review technique will be used to manage the goods. Stock review involves a regular analysis of stock on hand versus projected future needs.
- The users will be able to set their goods as well as the threshold below which the stocks should not drop
- The system will give the users an UI to keep track of the stocks as well as give timely alert about particular stocks which are running low. Proper valuation of goods will also be provided according to the currency which is preferred.